The “A Bloomy World” Exhibition and Sharing Session by artist with disabilities was held at the “Beyond Coffee and Bar” on Yiu Wah Street, Causeway Bay on 27 September, 2021 (Monday). The exhibition presented nine landscapes and plant-themed paintings created by Ying Yee - the Society’s service user and artist with disabilities. Ying

Yee generously donated that collection of paintings for charity auction. Upon her wish, the proceeds of the auction will be donated to the Society’s Yuet Hang Home and for artistic development for the persons with disabilities, so as to support her peers.

In the sharing session, Ying Yee expressed that art has helped her to overcome her emotional pitfalls, she mentioned that she is delighted by the public’s appreciation of her works. She is very grateful to the owners of the “Beyond Coffee and Bar” for venue donation, which allowed her to realize her dream by holding her first solo exhibition in the coffee shop. According to Ying Yee, this is the most happiest day of her life. In return, Ying Yee painted a work called “Cherry Blossom” in a live demonstration, and presented it to Mr. and Mrs. WONG Johnson - the venue’s sponsors as souvenir. During the sharing session, Ms. LAM Siu Ling, MH, Chairman of the Society’s Council recalled that she crossed paths with Johnson because they share similar ideas of inclusion. She thanked his whole-hearted support, which made the preparation and execution of the art exhibition and sharing session possible within a month. Mr. SZE Kyran, MH, the then Chairman of the Society’s Council, concluded that the cooperation between the Society and Beyond Coffee and Bar is a good demonstration of “Business - Social Partnership that unleashes potentials of disabilities through art” during his welcome speech.
